

Designing a Dream

What makes a house a home? For some, it's the people who live there. For others, it's the way in which the dwelling grows to reflect the owner. The team at iNT Design Furniture Limited have spent years working on the perfect way to combine functionality with a sense of style, tailoring their designs to suit their clients' needs in every respect. Known to LUXE as one of its Recognized Leaders in Interior Design and Decoration Services, 2020 - Hong Kong, we took a little deeper at the firm to find out more.

Interior design is such a personal topic, and often done with nerves, so naturally, when part of a process, while embracing the attitude that a house has to offer. Years of experience and professional skill has allowed the team to grow and become the excellent designers for their clients who are able to make a house into a comfortable place for a family to live in.

When working on a project, what makes iNT Design the option of choice is being able to be able to adapt early to different projects and demands. The team uses freedom and flexibility to ensure a holistic approach to the challenge of delivering a house. While some clients do their own thing, creating a clear brief from the beginning they are appreciated that both before, the team at iNT Design ensure that all parts of the process are completed in consultation with the client.

The real joy often lies in the professional advice to their employees, but actually, more so, the possibilities of the future growing and still more with. Currently, the process often brings the long hours and hectic days to work but a few, which is the joyous time when the team is able to show a whole new design for a house will receive more.

With the clear mission statement of "We Design Dreams", it's clear that iNT Design places a great deal of importance on the value of creating something truly extraordinary. The excellent design team have taken the most interesting, essential behind color and appeal, and have committed themselves to "being in creating designs that would appeal to the tastes of modern urban people.
